

Two Airmen Die in Crash, State Death Toll 17

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A twin-jet photo reconnaissance plane crash-landed into a pasture adjacent to the Little Rock municipal airport yesterday, killing two Arkansas Air National Guard pilots.

The fatal crash-landed a weekend of violent death in Arkansas in which at least 17 persons lost their lives, bringing to 28 the number who died violently in the state during the seven days which ended Sunday night.

The week-long death tabulation included: Traffic, 14; industrial mishaps, 5; train, 1; drowning, 3; airplane, 2; shooting, 2; stabbing, 1.

The victims of the jet crash were 1st Lt. Carl Jay Goins, 30, of Searcy and 1st Lt. Norman Bryan McCreary Jr., 29, of Little Rock.

A National Guard spokesman said the fliers were completing a routine mission and were approaching the runway for landing when the B-57 suddenly plunged to the ground. The wreckage did not burn.

Col. T. A. Shae, commander of the 123rd Air Base Group of the Air National Guard, said the men apparently had no chance to escape. The nose section, where the pilots were hunched, was crushed. Investigators, seeking to determine the cause of the crash, said the plane apparently struck the ground nose first and fell back on its tail section upside down.

McCreary, father of three daughters, was a full-time planning and training officer with the Air Guard. Goins was assistant territorial manager for an implement company. He was a native of Hot Springs.

A young husband and father of three children died yesterday at Benton of shotgun wounds which Sheriff James Steed said, were inflicted by the victim's wife.

Steed said Mrs. Sybil Griffin, 21, of Benton was held on an open charge in connection with the slaying of her husband, Eddie Griffin, 22. The sheriff said the shooting Saturday apparently ended an argument between the couple in which Mrs. Griffin ordered her husband to stay out of their house. Griffin was killed by the shotgun blast as he stepped onto the porch of the house. The sheriff said. At Magnolia, yesterday, Deputy Prosecutor Wendell Utley filed a charge of first degree murder. ## Candidates Have a Full Schedule in Last Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The last full week of campaigning began today (Monday) as the July 29 day of reckoning in Arkansas' 3-way race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Two of the candidates planned jaunts into separate sections of the state while the third intended to remain at his headquarters in Little Rock.

Gov. Orval Faubus scheduled visits at Rogers, Bentonville, Gaviotte, Decatur, Gentry, Siloam Springs and Fayetteville following yesterday's open house in a Little Rock hotel where he greeted an overflow crowd of supporters.

The incumbent, seeking a third term, planned to deliver a television speech from Fort Smith at 8 p. m.

Chris Finkbeiner, who yesterday indirectly blamed Faubus for the actions of a disreputable crowd at a political rally in Pine Bluff Saturday night, announced that he would take his campaign into eastern Arkansas.

The itinerary of the Little Rock meatpacker for today included stops at Mariana, Clarendon, Fort Smith, Brinkley, Madison and Searcy.

Chancellor Lee Ward said he would remain in his state headquarters in the capitol, preparing for a television address tomorrow night.

The Paragould judge was the principal target of a boisterous, jerrying crowd at the televised rally in Pine Bluff.

The throng hit Ward with a solid chorus of boos and waved Faubus signs as the judge mounted the rostrum to speak.

"I am delighted at the fine brand of sportsmanship of course I am aware that the great majority of you sitting out there were not participating," Ward said.

"As the crowd continued to boo and chant 'Faubus, Faubus,' Ward asked if his listeners wanted the governor to take back his threat to again let out the National Guard as he did in the Little Rock Central High School integration crisis last year.

"The crowd roared in the affirmative. I am very pleased to get the answer that you want a governor who would fire on federal troops," said the judge.

Finkbeiner, the second gubernatorial candidate to speak, took a different tack.

"I just want to say one thing," he boomed. "Ship ahoy!"

He added, he crowded hoisted. "Now I know how cattle and hogs feel when they walk on the ramp to get slaughtered."

In a statement issued at his headquarters in Little Rock yesterday, Finkbeiner declared:

"I am a sustaining member of the Jaycees and my feeling for the Jaycees in Arkansas is a matter of record. I am disappointed that the rally sponsored by the Pine Bluff Junior Chamber of Commerce was disrupted by a mob of unruly, uncontrolled, even when the governor and his aides with hand signals were unable to bring any sort of order."

Free X-Ray Clinic Starts Here July 24

Through the joint efforts of the State Health Department and the Tuberculosis Association, the annual free chest x-ray clinic will be held in Hempstead County beginning July 24th.

New cases of tuberculosis are now being reported at the rate of almost 100,000 annually in the United States. This clinic is set up for the purpose of finding unsuspected cases in the early stage when complete recovery is almost certain.

Charles Reynerson, county chairman of the TB Association, and Mrs. Ray Turner, county health nurse, cordially invite the citizens of Hempstead County to avail themselves of this x-ray when the mobile unit is nearest them.

The clinic will be in charge of Mrs. Ernest Graham, and she assures the public that only courteous, prompt attention will be given, with only a minimum of inconvenience for each one taking the x-ray.

The clinic will be held in McCaskill, the morning of July 24th, in DeAnn, the afternoon of July 24th, and will be in Hope the 25th, 28th, and 29th of July.

During State 4-H Club Week these 4-H'ers will represent Hempstead County 4-H Club girls in the talent, contest, health fair and the candle lighting ceremony. They will also make an educational tour of the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville.

The group, accompanied by Mrs. Lorraine B. Wylie, Home Demonstration Agent, will return home Friday, July 25.

U. S. Brings Atom Arms to Middle East

By EDWIN A. SHANKE

BEIRUT, Lebanon, W. — The United States brought the menacing words "atomic crisis" today to the Middle Eastern capital.

A U. S. spokesman said all ground, air and sea combat units have atomic capability. He specifically avoided saying whether the 6,200 Marines here have atomic warheads in Lebanon.

U. S. Marines joined Lebanese army patrols which could bring them in contact with rebels.

These developments came as President Nasser of the Syrian-Egyptian United Arab Republic and Soviet Premier Khrushchev weighed results of their latest diplomatic moves.

Nasser, it was reported by Cairo news agencies, met with the rich ruling Sheikh of Kuwait in Damascus Sunday. Kuwait, a British protectorate, is on the Persian Gulf close to Iraq, and supplies half of Britain's oil. It is the leading oil producer in the Middle East.

Khrushchev proposed over the weekend a five-power summit conference to talk over the Middle East crisis.

The United States also took steps to inform Lebanese of the reasons for the presence of American troops in Lebanon.

A U. S. Embassy spokesman said a million leaflets in Arabic were dropped from one end of Lebanon to the other, and assured the Lebanese the Americans would leave as soon as the United Nations has taken measures assuring the independence of Lebanon.

Ward Charges Faubus Offered to Buy Him Out

LITTLE ROCK AP — Chancellor Lee Ward charged today that a supporter of Gov. Orval Faubus indirectly offered him "a substantial bribe if I would withdraw as an active candidate."

There was no immediate comment from Faubus' forces here.

In a prepared statement, Ward, one of three Democratic candidates for governor, said an official of Faubus' campaign headquarters approached an associate of Ward with the offer in Pine Bluff Saturday afternoon.

Ward said the amount allegedly involved "was considerably in excess of the total expenditure of my campaign to date."

Earlier in the campaign Ward told newsmen that he hoped to have $50,000 to spend on his efforts before the July 29 primary.

Ward said that his associate "did not bother to communicate this offer to the alleged briber to me Saturday night because he knew what my answer would be — a flat and final 'no.'"

The chancellor said he is flattered that the alleged offer made to him to withdraw "is almost three times the sum Faubus representatives offered me to seek another office in the first place."

"As Faubus says, it is courage that counts, not cash," Ward said.

Shetland Pony Sale Termed Successful

This area's first Shetland Pony Auction was termed "very successful" by Frank Douglas, president of the Third District Livestock Show here.

Some 235 ponies were up for auction and only 225 were expected. The prices paid ranged from less than $100 to a top of $2,250, Mr. Douglas said. The entire sale ran about $10,000 more than expected. Final figures had not been tabulated today.

The sale attracted at least 20 top buyers, other than local buyers. Of the 235 horses only 47 were passed out during the auction. The auction attracted breeders from Oklahoma, Texas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas and there were 41 horses from Canada.

Plans are already underway to hold another sale this fall, Mr. Douglas said.

Allies Rule Out Any Summit Conference as Proposed by Russians

All 7 Appeal Judges to Hear Little Rock Case

ST. LOUIS AP — All seven judges of the Federal Court of Appeals will decide whether racial integration will continue this fall at Central High School in Little Rock, Ark. A hearing already had been set for Aug. 4 here.

An order transferring the case from a three-judge division to the full court was received by the court clerk today from Chief Judge Archibald K. Gardner at his home in Huron, S. D.

The order stated there is "sufficient reason" for the full court to hear the case.

The appeal is from an order by U. S. District Judge Harry J. Lemley of Arkansas directing that integration at the school be suspended for 2 1/2 years to provide a "peaceful interlude."

The order, requested by the Little Rock School Board, was appealed by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Judge Gardner explained, in his Order, that the case had been assigned to the three-judge division when the appellate court had before it only a request for a stay on Judge Lemley's order.

Since then the court decided on a special session to hear the appeal itself on the merits of the case, deferring action on the stay motion. Both parties agreed to this and to the Aug. 4 date for a hearing.

The case had been assigned to a division composed of Judges John B. Sanford of St. Paul, Minn. D. Van Oosterhout of Orange City, Iowa, and Harvey M. Johnson of Hastings, Neb.

In addition to Judge Gardner, the other judges of the appellate court are Joseph W. Wadsworth of Omaha, Charles J. Vogel of Fargo, N. D. and Martin C. Mathies of St. Louis.

Balloon's Ray Plates Found in Montana

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Two packages of cosmic ray film plates carried to 130,000 feet by a huge plastic balloon were found in southeastern Montana today.

The Navy, which sent the balloon up Sunday, was putting finishing touches on a plan to launch a manned balloon Wednesday afternoon.

A spokesman for General Mills, Inc., contractor for the flight to collect cosmic ray data, said the 225-pound cargo of research equipment was found near Hardin, Mont., about 50 miles east of Billings. The sheriff at Hardin was reported holding it.

The equipment was jettisoned from the balloon Sunday. A tracking plane followed the parachute-borne payload down to an altitude of 10,000 feet, but lost it in the haze.

Prof. Marcel Scholin of the University of Chicago, a cosponsor of the flight with the Navy, said the film record from 130,000 feet could constitute a "milestone" in cosmic ray study.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Navy sent a balloon and scientific equipment to 130,000 feet today.

Auto Stolen Here Is Recovered

An auto stolen here Sunday from Hugh Hall was recovered at Arkadelphia a short time later. Chief of Police Jack Brown announced today. Mr. Brown also reported that a Ford pickup stolen from Joe R. Mason of Bossier City, La., was recovered in front of Hall's home.

The thief drove the Hope car to Arkadelphia where he stole another auto leaving the Hall vehicle which apparently was not damaged. Mr. Brown said the thief hasn't yet been apprehended.

Khrushchev Called for Meet on Tuesday

WASHINGTON AP — The United States today ruled out for all practical purposes any thought of an immediate summit meeting as proposed by the Russians.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said a draft reply to Soviet Premier Khrushchev's call for such a meeting Tuesday has been sent to this country's allies.

Hagerty said, however, he did not expect an answer could be dispatched today, thus ruling out any talks by the deadline proposed by Khrushchev.

This country has taken the position that any immediate talks between the West and the Russians should be in conjunction with the United Nations.

This would not necessarily rule out a meeting by heads of government. Prime Minister Macmillan of Britain in fact told Commons today that Britain and its allies are urgently considering "the best means by which to arrange for a meeting which heads of government could attend."

Hagerty told his news conference that consultations are going on among the Western Allies.

He said a draft reply to Khrushchev meaning an answer on which U. S. allies are invited to comment before it is sent—is now in the hands of the other major Western Powers.

The U. S. draft, Hagerty said, was sent to the other nations Sunday night through their ambassadors.

And he said that until the consultations end he will have nothing further to say about the possibility of a summit conference.

Hagerty said that after the consultations among the Western countries are completed President Eisenhower will make a direct reply to Khrushchev.

Bulletin

R. B. Cornelius suffered an injury to his right hand about 1:30 p. m. in an accident at Burner Ivory Handle Co. He was taken to a local hospital by an Oakcrest ambulance.

Some officials said the reply would open the way for a high level meeting of the U. N. Security Council in the near future—if the Soviets are interested.

President Eisenhower met with his top diplomatic and military advisers in an extraordinary Sunday afternoon session to consider what the United States should do about Khrushchev's move.

The Soviet Premier had sent notes to the leaders of the United States, Britain, France and India calling for a summit conference at Geneva Tuesday or any other time. He expressed willingness if necessary to meet in Washington. He accused this country and Britain of committing aggression by sending troops into Lebanon and Jordan had declared they had "gravely endangered the peace."

The sensational Soviet gambit, authorities here said, put the two Western Powers in a bad spot before world public opinion, already alarmed over the possibilities of war in the Middle East.

Eisenhower at his Gettysburg farm, promptly conferred with Secretary of State Dulles by telephone. Dulles discussed the Khrushchev proposal immediately afterward with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

Lloyd and Dulles met again just before Lloyd took off for London after 3 1/2 days of discussions here on British-American Middle East strategy.

Lloyd told reporters Dulles and he "are in substantial agreement" on how to handle the Khrushchev note. The White House a few hours later issued a terse statement.

Japs Count on West to Support Plan

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Japan counted on Western support today as she went to the U.N. Security Council with a plan to expand operations of the U.N. observer group in Lebanon so U.S. Marines could be withdrawn.

Some diplomats believed the Soviet Union, intent on getting a special session of the General Assembly in which to attack the West, would veto Japan's proposal.

The council scheduled a mid-afternoon session but there was no indication when a vote would come on the Japanese resolution. If it failed, the Council then could take up U.S. and Soviet resolutions calling for an emergency assembly session on the Middle East crisis.

The Japanese resolution would ask the U.N. observation group in Lebanon to "develop its activities" aimed at insuring against illegal infiltration of arms and men from the United Arab Republic to the Lebanese rebels.

It also would have the Council ask U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to arrange such additional measures as he may consider necessary to prevent, aid from reaching the rebels and to "insure the territorial integrity and political independence of Lebanon, so as to make possible the withdrawal of U.S. forces from Lebanon."

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, leaving New York for London late Sunday, told newsmen Britain would vote for the Japanese resolution. A source close to the Japanese delegation said the United States would too.

The United States in pressing its own resolution to authorize a U.N. emergency force for Lebanon had promised to withdraw its Marines when the U.N. troops took over. The Soviets vetoed the American proposal Friday and the

Middle East Blotting Out Other Issues

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—The ominous shadow of the Middle East crisis threatened today to blot out other issues and force some major revisions in congressional campaign strategy.

Campaign leaders were watching public reaction to President Eisenhower's decision to send troops into Lebanon. There was no certainty in either camp about the immediate or long-range political effect.

But one thing stood out in their reports from grass-roots canvases: If American troops are sent into Lebanon on election day, Middle East developments are likely to have more effect on voting results than any other single issue.

While GOP National Chairman Meade ALCorn has condemned Eisenhower's troop decision as "won wide acclaim," a Republican campaign strategist who didn't want his name used said his survey showed very mixed reaction.

He said that while many voters approved the President's firm action in a dangerous situation, others believed American intervention in the internal affairs of any other nation would be likely to boomerang.

A leading Democrat, who thinks Eisenhower should first have appealed to the United Nations and then sent troops if necessary, said he is advising party colleagues to soft-pedal their criticisms and let events speak for themselves.

Fresh in the minds of the Democrats is the use the Republicans made of the Korean War issue in the 1952 presidential election. In speeches, ALCorn still stresses the theme that the Eisenhower administration settled the Korean conflict and can be depended on to chart a course that would avoid war.

Democrats reason that even if U.S. troops avoid fighting—and they hope fervently there is none—the American voter will be mightily restive if the weeks stretch into months without a Middle East settlement.

The Republicans hope, of course that some way can be found to bring about an agreement that will permit the honorable withdrawal of U.S. forces long before election time. They feel that would be a political bonanza. But they have serious doubts it can be done soon.

Jordan Widens Its Breach With Nasser

By EDWIN A. SHANKE
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Jordan widened the breach with President Nasser today, breaking diplomatic relations with his United Arab Republic.

King Hussein's desert state got 12½ million dollars in cash while more U.S. troops poured into neighboring Lebanon.

The American aid to Jordan so far did not include troops. It came as oil-rich Kuwait and Saudi Arabia stood on the edge of the Middle East whirlpool and Nasser continued working to consolidate his gains.

The U.A.R. chief returned to Cairo today after a bustling three-week round of diplomatic talks that took him to Yugoslavia, the Soviet Union and Syria.

Some 1,400 more American troops landed in Beirut, bringing the total in Lebanon to about 9,400. The new arrivals brought in the first heavy artillery as well as cooks, supply and maintenance men that indicated the United States might be getting ready for a long stay.

Among Americans and Europeans, while is the symbol of purity and innocence, while in some countries it stands for mourning.

Council majority voted down a Soviet demand for immediate withdrawal of the American forces from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan.

TODAY'S 2-MINUTE MYSTERY
THE CASE OF
THE WORLD TRAVELER
Thirteenth of a series
by Donald J. Sobel

"Moscow Memories," by Nina Virve, had been a runaway best seller for three months when Dr. Haledjian received a telephone call from the book's publisher, Alf Shuller.

"When Mrs. Virve died last month," he held up the royalty payment," said Shuller. "She left no kin, or so we thought. But a husband, who according to the book died in Odessa in 1910, has turned up, claiming the royalties. He'll be in my office at 10. Can you come over?"

Haledjian agreed, and in the publisher's office met Gregory Virve, a distinguished looking gentleman of 70-odd, suitably equipped with a Russian passport, as well as with birth and marriage certificates.

After an exchange of pleasantries, Haledjian said, "Your wife wrote that you died of pneumonia. Curious you didn't inform her that you survived."

"Curious by American standards only," replied Virve. "You see, the marriage was arranged by our parents. It was short, unhappy. Six months after the wedding I contracted small pox, not pneumonia. Through a mix-up at the hospital, my death was falsely recorded. I decided against correcting the error."

"My compliments on your English," said Haledjian. "I suppose you prospered and traveled a good bit since your alleged death."

"As Boris Novak I was quite successful in the textile line. Two years after my reported demise, I sold my business to a large Leningrad firm, retaining a share in the profits. Since then I've traveled extensively. When I collect the money from Nina's book, I intend to settle in London permanently. I have no love for my native land under the Communists."

After Virve departed, Alf Shuller said, "Everything appears in order. What do you think, doctor?"

Newspaper Quits After 120 Years

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Times-Star, a daily newspaper with roots that go back nearly 120 years, has published for the last time.

The E. W. Scripps Co. bought the afternoon newspaper Sunday and merged it with its competitor, the Cincinnati Post.

The combined paper, to be called the Cincinnati Post-Times Star, will publish for the first time today.

Purchase price was not disclosed.

The move gives Scripps—parent firm of Scripps-Howard Newspapers—full control of daily newspapers here.

Robert H. Fox, publisher of the Enquirer, said, "The two papers will operate separately and independently, both editorially and in the business office, as the Enquirer has in the past."

David S. Inalls, publisher of the Times-Star, sent telegrams to each of 649 employees saying their jobs had ended as of Saturday.

Inalls said in a statement that the Times-Star had steadily increasing losses since 1952 "to a point where losses for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1958, were over one million dollars."

"I'd let Inspector Winters examine his papers. I've a strong feeling they are forgeries."

A Review of Summer Television

By FRED DANZIO
United Press International

NEW YORK UPI—It's been a long, hot summer in the slot Perry Como vacated.

Perry's Saturday night replacement on NBC-TV, "The Bob Crosby Show," is one of the freshest variety hours around.

Most of the trouble is with the star of the show. I'm afraid he just isn't much of a star. Every time he sings sounds like the last one and his personality doesn't let me forget it.

I'm not even sure how to rate Gretchen Wyler, Crosby's blonde partner on the show. Is she really as talented and bright as she seems? Or does she benefit by the drabness of her sidekick?

Ironically, the bright spots on the show — other than Miss Wyler — are the gala station-break announcements and the cue-card by-play. These bits of business it happens, are virtual trade marks of the Como show. But I suppose we shouldn't begrudge brother Bob this "loan." He needs all the help he can get this summer.

"The Ed Sullivan Show" on CBS-TV Sunday night presented its fifth annual Army talent show, complete with GI acrobats singing choruses, musicians and comedians. It had a fast-moving, preposterous atmosphere. Since Elvis couldn't make it, Pete Jack Larson came in from Seoul, Korea, with a fairly representative imitation. Comedian Jack Carter, co-host with Teresa Brewer, stayed on too long and tried to get away with too many stale gags.

Channel Chips: "Club Oasis," starring Spike Jones and his rascally music-makers Saturday night.

West Big Three Willing in Future

PARIS (AP)—The Western Big Three are reported willing to attend a summit meeting in the near future if it is held at the United Nations with government chiefs heading up the diplomatic delegations.

Such a conference would bring together President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev, de Gaulle and Macmillan at either a Security Council or General Assembly meeting in New York.

It would meet the Soviet demand for summit talks, and the West's belief that the U.N., which is now considering the Middle East crisis, should have full opportunity to carry on.

To 'Prove' Troops a Calculated Move

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Amos Guthridge, a pro-segregationist leader and congressional candidate, said he will prove in a speech tonight that the sending of federal troops here last fall was a "coolly calculated move" and not a spur of the moment decision.

Guthridge has scheduled a 15-minute address at 8:15 p.m. over one television and four radio stations.

He is the attorney for the Capital Citizens Council and is opposing Rep. Brooks Hays D-Ark for the Fifth Congressional District post.

Guthridge said he would identify a "high ranking general" in military who he said canvassed homes around Central High School five days before federal soldiers were sent to the school on orders of President Eisenhower.

The troops enforced federal court-ordered integration after rioting erupted outside the school when nine Negroes entered.

on NBC-TV, found Spike dropping his trousers four times in the half-hour. But despite this ancient gambit, some of Spike's takeoffs on million picture theme songs showed more inventive humor. "The Jimmy Dean Show" on CBS-TV Saturday featured good music that was nicely presented, despite the low budget. Dean is gradually working into the all-around singer category, avoiding the "country-singer" tag. "The Dick Clark Show" on ABC-TV Saturday originated from Miami Beach instead of New York and proved conclusively that teen-agers whether in the North or South look awful while energetically chewing gum. Kenan Wynn, guest on "The Steve Lawrence" Eydie Gorme Show Sunday night, proved again that he's an actor with an especially deft comic touch. He makes me laugh more than his dad did, Toddy Nadtler on "The $64,000 Challenge." CBS-TV Sunday night, invited Elfrida von Neredoff to join him on the show for a "little" match.

The Channel Swim: Steve Allen will not renew his recording contract with the Coral label. He'll join the Dol roster in October. Jackie Cooper looks like a "Sure bet as emcee of a new fall game show on CBS-TV, "Numb, Numb, Please."

"The G.E. Theater," hosted by Ronald Reagan, appears ready to turn on the video's late bandwagon. Several of its 1958-season shows are expected to be taped in New York. Buster Keaton, Hans Conried, and Dr. Frank C. Barker will appear in "The Alphabet Conspiracy," a Bell System addition to its science series, on NBC-TV Jan. 26, 1959.

Dennis Day will replace Arthur Godfrey on the morning CBS radio-TV show when Arthur starts his summer vacation later this month.

Dodgers Finally Climb Out of Last Position

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Chavez Ravine may still be a dream but the Dodgers have won the fight. For the first time since May 12, Los Angeles is out of last place. By one skinny percentage point.

Los Angeles and Pittsburgh are tied for sixth and Cincinnati is last, thanks to the percentage table. Each is nine games behind league-leading San Francisco.

Johnny Podres won his ninth in 10 Coliseum starts shutting out Philadelphia 4-0 on four hits Sunday.

The Giants routed Bob Friend with five runs in the first inning and went on to down Pittsburgh 7-3, protecting their half-game lead over Milwaukee.

Milwaukee scored two in the ninth for a 4-2 victory over Chicago. It was Warren Spahn's 12th of the season. Jim Adcock homered for the Braves. Cal Neenan and Dale Lund for the Cubs.

Sam Jones struck out 12 Cincinnati batters as St. Louis dropped the Redlegs into the basement 3-1.

All clubs in the American League lost ground to the New York Yankees, who now lead by 11 games. The Yanks took two from Kansas City, 3-1 in 10 innings on Yogi Berra's two-run homer and 8-0 on Whitey Ford's second straight shutout. Detroit beat Boston 3-0 behind Jim Bunning's no-hit, no-run pitching but lost the second to the Red Sox 6-2. Chicago beat Washington 4-2 on Dick Donovan's five-hitter but lost the second 5-4 when Roy Sievers homered in the ninth. Joe Ginsberg's 10th inning single with the bases loaded brought Baltimore a 3-2 verdict over Cleveland.

Slove Bilko's 400-foot triple got the Dodgers away fast against Curt Simmons, who gave up 14 hits in 7 1/3 innings.

Paul Giel, Minnesota's former All American halfback, won his second for the Giants with relief from Ruben Gomez.

Jim Davenport had two singles and a home run and Daryl Spencer came through with a three-run double. Dick Stuart homered for the Pirates.

Taylor Phillips of the Cubs, dueling with Spahn, had retired 12 in order when Mel Roach opened the ninth with a single and went to second on another single by Felix Mantilla. Don Elston came in and struck out Hank Aaron but pinch hitter Frank Torre singled to score Roach. Mantilla came home on a sacrifice fly.

St. Louis scored all three of its runs in the fourth while routing Brooks Lawrence. Singles by Stan Musial, Wally Moon, Curt Flood and Jones did the trick.

Detroit's Bunning Hurls Year's First No-Hitter

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Jim Bunning shelled the home run ball for the strikeout pitch, he was on the way back to his brilliant 1957 form.

Detroit's 20-game winner of a year ago pitched a no-hit, no-run game against Boston's sluggers at Fenway Park Sunday. Six weeks ago he couldn't get anybody out.

In his first 11 games Bunning allowed 11 homers. Then he went on his strikeout spree.

He fanned 12 Red Sox June 11, 14 New York Yankees June 20, 10 Yanks July 16 and 12 Red Sox in his no-hitter. His total of 108 strikeouts puts him ahead of New York's Bob Turley for the American League lead.

Despite Bunning's magic, Detroit lost ground in the chase of the Yankees as did every other club. The Tigers won behind Bunning 3-0 but lost the second game to Boston 5-2 as Ike Delock ran his amazing won-loss record to 1- and 13- over a two-run span.

Yogi Berra hit a two-run homer as the Yanks took two from Kansas City 3-1 and 8-0. As a result, New York leads the league by 11 games.

Roy Sievers' ninth-inning homer in the second game aroused Washington fans to run around the bases with him, celebrating a 5-4 victory over Chicago. Dick Donovan's five-hit pitching gave the White Sox a 4-2 opening game decision.

Joe Ginsberg came through with a single with the bases loaded in the 10th inning for Baltimore's 3-2 edge over Cleveland. After Bob Boyd opened the 10th with a triple Cleveland walked Gene Woodling and Bob Nieman intentionally but Ginsberg crossed up the strategy with his winning hit. Arnold Portocarrero won his fifth straight, finishing up with 7 1/3 hitless innings.

In the National, San Francisco ran its winning streak to six with a 7-3 romp over Pittsburgh, clinging to a half-game lead. Warren Spahn won his 12th for Milwaukee, 4-2 over the Chicago Cubs.

Los Angeles finally escaped from the cellar with a 6-0 victory over Philadelphia on Ichuay Podres' four-hitter. St. Louis dumped Cincinnati into last place as Sam Jones struck out 12 on the way to a 3-1 decision.

The big excitement was in Boston, where Bunning snapped a six-game Red Sox winning streak. He worked two and hit one. He faced only 3 batters.

Berra played right field for the Yanks in both games as he returned to the lineup after a layoff due to a hand injury. His homer scored Enos Slaughter, who had singled for his fourth hit. Jerry Lumpe's three-run homer made it easy for Ford, who gave up only five hits in winning his 12th.

Sievers' big blow at Washington came off Early Wynn, who billy just come out of the bullpen. Billy Goodman had four hits in the double-header to take over the batting lead at .337.

Tiger Hurler Faced Only 30 Batters

BOSTON (AP) — Jim Bunning, Detroit right-hander, basks in the glow of a no-hitter today after overcoming Ted Williams, super-stiffen and a tough park for his share of baseball history.

The tall Tiger faced 30 men as he defeated the Boston Red Sox 3-0 Sunday in the first game of a doubleheader. He walked Gene Stephens twice and hit Jackie Jensen with a pitch.

But it was Williams, 1957 American League batting champion, who haunted Bunning's thoughts as he neared his goal.

"The big thing I had on my mind going out for the last inning was I didn't want to walk anybody," Bunning said. "My thought was I just mustn't get any one on—so Williams could come up and hit a homer."

Williams had beaten Detroit with a two-run, 12th inning blast the previous afternoon.

Bunning struck out Stephens on an inside corner delivery, then fanned Ted Lepke on a slow, high curve and there were two down in the ninth.

He had struck out 12.

Next: Williams.

"The first pitch was wide."

"The I threw him a slider."

Bunning recounted, "When the ball sailed into right field I knew it wasn't hit that good."

Al Kaline grabbed it and the 26-year-old, 6 - 3, Kentuckian was mobbed by teammates.

Barons Prove to Be Very Dangerous

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's downright dangerous these days to get in front of those pen-and-ink-hungry Birmingham Barons. They stampede from behind like a herd of angry elephants.

The Barons, looking for their first Southern Association title since 1941, have won 11 of their last 14 games. And in 10 of those they came from behind to move from third place into a two-game lead.

Ortiz improved to a 4-0 lead yesterday after five innings on a bases-loaded double by Mike Krsinic and veteran Sammy Meek's 17th home run. This so infuriated the Barons that they mashed a Jackie record by slugging four home runs in the sixth inning. Bob Thorne, Mel Clark Tom Yewell and Diez Camilli helped write the record.

Thorne added his 16th of the season an inning later with one on, and Lou Limmer delivered the game-winning blow — a two-run homer in the 11th for Birmingham's 9-7 verdict.

Mobile crowded Atlanta out of second place with a 5-4 victory over New Orleans. Nashville swept a doubleheader from Chattanooga 12-2 and 2-1, and Memphis split with Little Rock. Memphis won the opener 2-0, and Little Rock slugged the Chicks 13-7 in the second game.

Slumping Atlanta, showing only four victories in the last 12 games, now must face Mobile while Birmingham goes home for a series of three. Other series openers include Nashville at Memphis, Chattanooga at Little Rock, Atlanta at Kansas City, and St. Louis at New York.

Atlanta's John Kline, who won 15 of his first 17 decisions, made a sixth futile bid for no. 18. He surrendered the first three homers in the big Birmingham game, and Camilli greeted reliever Jim Umbricht with the record-breaking home run.

The double loss to Nashville dented Chattanooga's late fourth place position. Memphis' Chuck Gass scored three runs and drove home two in Nashville's one-sided opener. In the second game, the Chicks' first baseman drove in the first run and scored the winning marker on Jim Freidley's sacrifice in the eighth. Paul Banks walked a grand slam homer and drove in five runs in the first game. Banks and Gass homered in the second game.

Joe Brown to Make Fifth Title Defense

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Joe Brown makes his fifth defense of the world light-weight boxing title Wednesday night at Sam Houston Coliseum in Houston against Kenny Lane, a clever southpaw from Muskegon, Mich.

The 32-year-old champ who never has let a challenger go the limit when the title was on the line, is expected to be a 12 to 5 favorite in the 15-round match.

Brown's career record for 90 fights is 70-15-9 with two no contest matches.

Lane, 26, hasn't lost since Oct. 3, 1955 when he dropped a decision to Paddy De Marco in New York. He has won 19 straight and has a record of 52-5.

The championship bout will be televised (ABC) across the nation.

Pete Rademacher, the Olympic heavyweight champ of 1956, continues to fight his way down through the heavy division. He met Floyd Patterson, the pro champion, in his first start last August and was knocked out in six rounds Friday night at Los Angeles. Rademacher boxes Zora Solter, the Chandler, Ariz. senior who is co-ruled with Eddie Machen at the No. 1 contender. Rademacher will be a toughshot, about 3 to 1 against the more experienced Polley, although Rademacher, 30, is three years older than his opponent.

The fight is to be carried on network NBC radio and television.

Tennis Strategists Give Some Lessons

By JERRY UDWIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Two master tennis strategists gave their opponents a few lessons Sunday in winning the National Play Court singles championships.

Mrs. Dorothy Head Kneiser, seeking to go with those she won in 1951 and 1955, administered the first lesson in the 4th annual tournament in suburban River Forest. Her pupil was Carol Fager, a 19-year-old from Chicago.

Arkansas Is Faring Well, AIDC Says

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Industrial Development Commission pictures Arkansas as faring better than many sections of the United States during the current economic recession.

In its annual report released Saturday, the AIDC said that 8,527 new jobs were announced by 91 new or expanding industries in Arkansas during the past year.

The new jobs would add an anticipated 24 1/2 million dollars to the state's payrolls each year, the commission said.

The report covered the third year of the AIDC's existence. From July 1, 1957, to July 1, 1958, with a pop on Rockefeller, AIDC chairman, noted that the 8,527 jobs announced in the past year represented a drop of 18 per cent from gains of the previous year.

But he said the commission took into account that the period was one of "recession" felt throughout the United States.

"Arkansas, along with the rest of the nation, has not traveled the past 12 months unaffected by the economic downturn," the report added.

"But there is cause for some satisfaction to be able to record that the state's manufacturing employment dropped 3.9 per cent compared to the nation's loss of 10.3 per cent."

Allies Seek Means to Settle Crisis

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan said today Britain and its allies are urgently considering "the best means by which to arrange for a meeting which heads of government could attend" to tackle the Middle East crisis.

The British leader's statement was made in the House of Commons in response to a Labor party request for the government's view on Russia's call for a summit conference.

Macmillan said the letter from Nikita Khrushchev, proposing a five-power conference by Tuesday, contained many statements which Britain cannot accept.

The Prime Minister said he hopes to make a statement Tuesday concerning the British reply to Khrushchev.

He said the world's leading exporter of bananas in 1957, when its crop was estimated at 10,000,000 stems.

It's the Law

This legal column is prepared under the supervision of the Arkansas Bar Association and distributed each week as a public service by the lawyers of Arkansas. Every effort is made to insure that it reflects an accurate interpretation of the law as applicable to the stated facts.

WHAT HAPPENS — IF:
In this unpredictable life of ours, it is the law's business to take a long look into the future and say what would "happen if."

For in your contracts, leases, wills, insurance policies, escrows, and the like, you had better say what would "happen if," some of your best laid plans go awry. Such events the law calls "contingencies."

Who gets the "nearest money" you put down, if you cannot go through with saying that "happens if" you want to pay up that loan and save interest? What happens if partnership goes sour, or a partner gets sick or dies? What happens if the people you name in your will should die before you do, or if you all perish in a common catastrophe like a car smash-up?

The law is wise but it cannot do your thinking for you. It settles such questions — but not always to your liking. If you don't make a will, the law says who shall get your property. If you leave certain things out of a contract, the law assumes that you meant to put some certain things in. But how much better it would be in the first place to put them in the way you want them, by asking "what if?"

Take your will now. Your first desire, of course, is to take care of your wife and children — those nearest to you. But it won't hurt anything to put "contingent beneficiaries" in your will in case something happens to thwart your first intentions.

Review your will every year or so to see if it meets the new things that have come up or arrange with your lawyer to write in "contingent beneficiaries" — those who will receive your property if your first beneficiaries should die before you do.

You may long ago have had your son provided for in your will, but what about those lovely grand children he and his wife have presented to you since you wrote the will? What would happen to them if things go wrong, and your son should die before you?

Of take your widowed sister and her children now. Suppose you and your immediate family should be wiped out? Would you want your property to go equally to her and to your well-heeled bachelor brother? Or would you prefer to leave your brother some token of your affection, and then really take care of your sister?

You may be impatient with the law's long memory. Such things never happen, you think. But the court records are full of plans which failed. And so the law has ways in which you can provide for "what happens — if." One way is the device of contingent beneficiaries in your will and insurance policies.

Two Airmen Die

against Sanford Wilbourn, 32, a Negro, shortly after Lonnie George Brown was stabbed fatally on a residential street.

Sheriff Claude Linton said Brown, a 30-year-old Negro, was stabbed in the chest with a pocket knife after accusing Wilbourn of stealing some of his money. The sheriff said that at least five persons witnessed the slaying.

A man and woman, both Negroes, died early yesterday when their car smashed into a bridge abutment on U. S. Highway 65 near McGehee.

State trooper Max Brown identified the pair as Heber T. Dotsun, 33, and Elizabeth Moody Larcum, both of Chicago. He speculated that the driver had fallen asleep at the wheel since he could find no skid marks to indicate that brakes were applied before the crash.

A few hours later Brown investigated a fatal one-car accident on U. S. Highway 165 northeast of Dermott.

He said the automobile went out of control and overturned killing Johnny Jackson of Lufkin, Texas, a Negro. Two Negro women sitting in the car were hospitalized at Dermott with injuries.

Harold Lloyd McFall, about 30, drowned early yesterday when he fell from an outboard motor boat into Lake Atalanta at Robbers. His body was recovered before nightfall from 42 feet of swimming pool at Conway.

A crowded public swimming pool at Conway was the scene of a drowning yesterday.

The body of Richard Daniel French 19, of Damascus was recovered from about nine feet of water at one end of the pool. The drowning was the first at the pool since it was opened in 1923.

Drowning also claimed the life of Other Hamilton, about 32, of Gillett who was swimming yesterday with his three small children in a lake at Arkansas Post State Park. The body of the Negro was recovered by a man using fishing tackle.

In Pike County, state police reported that Deloise Ann Jones, an 84-year-old Negro woman, was struck and killed by a car on State Highway 26 near Antoine.

Another pedestrian, John Wesley Harris, 55, of Parkin, also a Negro, was struck and killed by a car Saturday night on U. S. Highway 75 about seven miles south of Parkin.

The Pulaski County coroner, Dr. Howard Dishongh, announced yesterday that the victim of a fiery pickup truck crash on U. S. Highway 67-70 southwest of Little Rock Saturday had been identified as Louis E. Wilson, 27, of Little Rock.

Keys found on the charred body was used to establish identity, the coroner said. One of the keys opened the front door of Wilson's house and the other opened his fishing Wilson died when his truck smashed into an overpass pier and burst into flames.

A 30-year-old Ohio man was shot to death Saturday in an abortive attempt to break out of jail at Stuttgart.

James Albert Williams of Cincinnati, accused of fleeing a Gillett farmer of $2,500 by posing as a Memphis policeman, was shot by veteran Stuttgart policeman Bill Hopson during a struggle on the second floor of the jail. Coroner Russell McCollum ruled the shooting justifiable homicide.

Hopson said Williams attacked him with the metal leg of a bed. Williams was brought to Stuttgart from Memphis after C. W. Collier, 31, told police that he had given $2,500 to the man. Collier said Williams, posing as a policeman, approached him in a Memphis hotel and told him he represented the Memphis Police Department.

Actually, there was no evident enthusiasm here for an immediate summit meeting on the Middle East. But it appeared that if the Soviets wished to pursue the matter, a meeting at least of foreign ministers at the Security Council might result.

Lloyd and Dulles are reported to have agreed in their meeting here Thursday through Sunday morning that if the U.N. observer group in Lebanon can be enlarged, armed and given adequate power to deal with the situation, this would meet U.S.-British requirements for the security of Lebanon and would permit removal of American forces from that country.

THROUGH SIX COUNTRIES
